

Spring songs lyrics in English

Day of red Pentecost

God brought day of red Pentecost
We also carry our young Queen.

On red day of Pentecost, everything comes to life
The gardens, the fields burst in flowers.

I'm little, I can't say a word,
Yet I tell praise for the God.

I'm a weak twig, I bend everywhere
I want to bloom now in my parents' soul!

I want to bloom like a peony,
But I can't bloom, so I only smell sweet.

What day is it?

What day is it, what day is it? It's red day of Pentecost,
Tomorrow will be, tomorrow will be its second day.

Good young man, take the bridle of your horse well,
Not to tramp on peony!

(In the 1990-s on their concert in Hungary the worldfamous frontman of band QUEEN
Freddy Mercury sang the wellknown
Hungarian folksong " Spring wind " in Hungarian language to favour their audience. The lyrics of the song was written in his palm.
You can see it on the You Tube

Spring Wind

Spring wind makes rivers flood
My dear, my dear
Every bird choose a partner
My dear, my dear.

Who do I choose
My dear, my dear
I choose you and you choose me
My dear, my dear.
